- Announcements:
 - Animal Entries for County fair due online no later than July 1. Fairentry.com--you must have at least one class signed up for by July 1. You can add and drop classes as needed throughout the week. Enter classes for each horse you plan on bringing to fair.
 - 2019 vaccination report--must be completed and turned in to Stephanie BEFORE horse is on grounds for the first time.
 - Record sheets are due to the extension office by 4:30pm. July 1st to complete project and show at fair. Leaders will sign tonight, and Stephanie can turn in for you if you would like.
 - Stall request forms are due to the extension office by July 1st.
 - Mini 4-Hers must be enrolled in mini to show at the county fair.
 - They must show an animal that is already at the fairgrounds--no bringing your own animal.
 - A family member 18 or older must be the handler for the horse.
 - You must still complete the poster project and turn in at mini judging on July 12 to show a horse.
 - There is a waiver/form that must be turned in with the poster in order to show. See the extension office with questions.
 - Due to recent events at other fairgrounds, it is highly recommended that you keep your tack and supplies locked in trailers during fair. Do not leave valuables out overnight.
- Rules Review:
 - Make sure you have a handbook--look at rules BEFORE fair to make sure you don't get disqualified from a class. The leaders/judges will follow all printed rules in handbooks.
