NOTES

¹Small Fry lead-line walk trot

Small Fry classes are for children enrolled in Mini 4-H Horse & Pony, and who have completed the poster project (to be submitted during judging week). An adult (18 years or older) family member must have the animal on a lead while in the show ring. A 4-H enrolled horse must be used—mini 4-Hers may not bring their own horse from home.

²Walk-Trot Classes

Horse/rider combination may not show in any other performance class in the same division, except Walk/Trot classes. Exhibitors competing in Walk-Trot classes in one division and in walk-trot-canter classes in a different division will not be eligible for all-around awards given at the year-end banquet. Walk Trot Equitation/Horsemanship—This class is for 4-Hers whose inexperience or disability prevents them from riding their animal at the canter or lope.

³Junior Western Pleasure- Animal 5 yrs and under

Class is based on age of animal; must be 5 years or younger. If showing in Junior Western Pleasure, rider may show that horse in one other Western Pleasure class (excluding Gaited/Saddle Type) based on rider's age and size of animal. Only ONE Western Pleasure class counts towards all-around points.

⁴Gaited/Saddle-Type Classes

If showing in Gaited/Saddle Type classes, the exhibitor may not show that horse in ANY other western performance class.

⁵Ranch Horse Pleasure

If showing in Ranch Horse Pleasure, NO other Western Pleasure Class may be entered.

⁶Ranch Riding

If showing in Ranch Riding, NO other Horsemanship class may be entered.

Classes larger than 15 will be split per judge's discretion.
